SUPERVISORY and LEADERSHIP SKILLS

INTRODUCTION

Today's managers face an increasingly challenging environment created by increased competition, rapid changes, and technological innovation. To navigate successfully in this environment, good leaders are needed. Supervisory and leadership are some of the most important skills companies need.

A good leader is one who can get positive results by setting direction and generate actions. In this course, you will have the opportunity to discover your supervisory and leadership potential and to develop it fully.

Here are the benefits you'll get by attending this course:

- Know your supervisory and leadership strength and potential.
- Understand your roles as a leader.
- Able to communicate direction and generate actions.
- Generate positive results through people.
- Able to lead, supervise and motivate others.
- Can identify good leaders around you.
- Take positive steps to further develop and apply your supervisory and leadership ability.
- Enhance your team building skill.

The ultimate objective of this training is to give you the confidence to lead and manage your team to achieve the goals. As John Maxwell said, a leader is one who knows the way, goes the way, and shows the way.
